MAY 8. 1740. NUMB. 595.

The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, January 31. 1739,40.

ON Tueſday laſt, the Motion for a Bill for the better ſecuring the Freedom of Parliament, by limiting the Number of Officers to ſit in the Houſe of Commons, was rejected, by a Majority of 16. There were 433 Members in the Houſe of Commons that divided, including the Speaker and the Tellers, and 124 abſent, which with Sir Francis Drake, Bart. deceas'd, makes the 558 Members of Parliament. The Houſe did not break up 'till near 11 at Night. His Royal Highneſs was ſome time in the Houſe of Commons, to hear the Debates.

Tueſday they began to beat up for Marines, upon the Ice on the Thames, when parading through the ſeveral Streets in Froſt Fair at Whitehall, and from thence to Somerſet Stairs, they pick'd up ſeveral idle young Fellows, who had nothing in their Pockets but their Hands, to preſerve them from the Cold.

February 2. Yeſterday an Order of Council was ſent to the Lords of the Admiralty, for laying an Embargo on all Shipping, except Coaſters, who are to have Protections.

Count Cambis, Embaſſador Extraordinary from the Court of France, died of a Fever in Hanover Square, the 1ſt of February.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Scarborough is dead; as is alſo that brave old Officer, General Evans.

The Earl of Delorain, and the Counteſs Dowager of Weſtmoreland are alſo dead.

The King of Spain, at the Requeſt of the King of France, has forbid all his Privateers to go into any of the Rivers of France in Queſt of the Engliſh Ships.

Feb. 5. Expreſſes have been diſpatched, for laying an Embargo on all Ships in all the Ports of Great Britain and Ireland.

Great Preparations of War are making in Ruſſia and Sweden; and a Rupture is ſhortly expected between thoſe two Powers.

Feb. 7. Tueſday a Proclamation was publiſhed, for the Encouragement of Seamen to enter into his Majeſty's Service, wherein every able Sailor, above the Age of 18 and under 55, who ſhall voluntarily enter on board any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, before the 15th of March next, is to receive Two Guineas as Bounty Money, and every ordinary Man Thirty Shillings, and be further entitled to ſix Months Pay, provided there ſhould not be occaſion for their Service for ſo long a Time.

We hear, that Orders were ſent about ten Days ago, from the Court of France, to Breſt, Toulon, &c. for the Men of War in thoſe Ports to be immediately got ready to go to Sea.

On Monday laſt died at his Houſe near the Church at Stepney, Mr. John Brooks, an eminent Virginia Merchant, Partner with Mr. Haſwell, and was formerly Commander of the George, in the Virginia Trade.

The Colonels of the ſeveral Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons in South Britain, have ordered all the Officers of their reſpective Corps to provide themſelves with Tents, in order for an Encampment.

Tents for the private Soldiers will be delivered at the Tower.

Below Bridge, by Land as well as Water, the Preſs is renew'd with ſuch Vigour, that they ſcarce ſuffer any Perſon that has the Appearance of a Sea-faring Man to paſs; and laſt Week, near Execution-Dock, a Tideſman belonging to the Cuſtom-Houſe was preſs'd and haul'd away on board a Tender, where he remained till the Lieutenant was ſatisfied he was already in the King's Service, and his Deputation, which he ought to have had about him, was ſent on board.

An Extract of a Letter from Paris.

CArdinal de Fleury continues to ſhew the utmoſt Deſire of reconciling Great Britain with Spain; he wou'd very gladly add to the Glory he has already acquir'd of being inſtrumental in determining ſo important an Affair: In order to ſucceed therein, the Earl of Waldegrave has been invited to his Houſe at Iſſi, who accordingly went there, and had ſeveral Conferences upon that Subject, the Subſtance of which was diſpatched by the Embaſſador to his Court.

A private Letter from the Hague, dated the 22d Inſt. adviſes, that notwithſtanding what is ſaid in the following Extract of a Letter from Paris, (which it quotes) and all the Reports that have been raiſed of the great Armaments making in the Ports of France, they have certain Intelligence that no Men of War are equipping either at Toulon or Marſeilles; that but little is doing in the Ports of the Ocean; that their Land Forces are quiet in their Winter-Quarters; and that there has been no Orders given for aſſembling a grand Council of War, as has been given out.

The Extract of the Letter from Paris.

Tho' great Hopes are entertained here by ſome People, that an Accommodation will be brought about between Great-Britain and Spain, yet great Diligence is uſing in all our Ports to equip our Men of War, and augment our Marine Troops. They write from Breſt, that 18 Line of Battle Ships are fitting out at that Port and Rochfort, which are to form a Squadron that is to be commanded by Vice Admiral d'Antin; who, it's ſaid, is to divide it into ſeveral little Squadrons of Obſervation. Twelve more Men of War are alſo fitting out at Toulon, to be likewiſe a Squadron of Obſervation in the Mediterranean. It's expected that in a little while the Officers which are to ſerve in theſe Squadrons will be appointed. Theſe Armaments, it's thought, are principally made to ſhew the Engliſh that France is putting herſelf into a good Condition againſt all Events. Whe-

Whether the Hague or Paris News, in relation to the above Armament, is moſt to be depended on, is difficult to determine.

Ten Line of Battle Ships are getting ready at ſeveral Dock Yards, to be forthwith put in Commiſſion.

The Lord George Graham, youngeſt Son to his Grace the Duke of Montroſe, is to have one of the new 20 Gun Ships as ſoon as they are ready for the Sea.

We hear, by the Bill againſt Horſe Races, in order to encourage a ſtrong Breed of Horſes in England, no Plates will be run for but by Horſes carrying 12 Stone.

Orders came on Saturday Night laſt to the War-Office, for raiſing the additional Marines, one Independent Company of Invalids, and an Addition of twenty Men to each of the four Company of Invalids in Scotland.

Two Thouſand and Forty Marines are ordered to be raiſed as Additionals to the ſix Regiments. There is to be added only a Lieutenant to each Company.

In my laſt, at the Requeſt of Mr. SEWARD, I inſerted an Article of News, relating to the ſhutting up of the Concert Room, &c. which it ſeems gives great Offence to the Gentlemen concern'd in the Entertainments uually carry'd on there; for tho' the Article is allow'd to be literally true, yet by the Manner of Expreſſion 'tis thought to inſinuate ſomething that is not true, viz. That the Gentlemen forbore meeting on the Night mentioned, as thinking ſuch Entertainments inconſiſtent with the Doctrine of the Goſpel. I have often ſaid, that if any Perſon thinks himſelf injured in a Publick News-Paper, he has a Right to have his Vindication made as publick as the Aſperſion. The Gentlemen above mentioned have brought me the following Letter to be inſerted in my Paper, believing the Publication of it will be advantageous to their Reputation: And tho' I think there is a good deal of Difference between a Vindication and an Invective; and that, whatever Obligations a Printer may lie under to publiſh Things of the former kind, he can be under none with Regard to the latter: Yet, as the publiſhing of this, will obviate a groundleſs Report (injurious to that Gentleman) that Mr. Whitefield had engag'd all the Printers not to print any Thing againſt him, leſt his Doctrine and Practice ſhould be expos'd, and the People undeceiv'd; I ſhall therefore print it as I received it: And when the Publick has heard what may poſſibly be ſaid in Reply, they will then judge for themſelves.

Mr. FRANKLIN, Philadelphia, May 6. 1740.

THE Perſons concerned in the Aſſembly and Concert, think their Characters injur'd by the Inſinuation which the Paragraph in your laſt Gazette, relating thereto, manifeſtly carries in it; as if any of them had declined going to either, on Account of their being inconſiſtent with the Doctrine of the Chriſtian Religion.

Agreeable therefore to what you promiſed, that your Preſs ſhould be open to any Vindication the Gentlemen concerned might think proper to make, you are deſir'd to publiſh this Letter, which will let the World know in what an unbecoming Manner this Affair has been conducted.

William Seward, who came into this Place as an Attendant and intimate Companion of Mr. Whitefield's, inconſiſtently (to uſe his own Expreſſion) with the Doctrine of the Goſpel, took upon him to invade other Men's Property; and contrary to Law and Juſtice, on the 16th of April, ſhut up the Door of the Concert Room, without any previous Application to, or Conſent had of any of the Members; and being informed, that he had by this Act, made himſelf liable to a Proſecution, he went the very Day before this notable Paragraph was publiſh'd, and as is ſuppos'd, after his Delivery of it to you to be printed, and ask'd Pardon of ſome of the principal Gentlemen of that Society for his Indiſcretion, repeatedly aſſuring them, that he knew nothing of any Gentlemen's having hired the Rooms, and that if he had had the leaſt Intimation of it, he would not have cauſed them to be ſhut up: And in this it appears he aſſerted an Untruth, in order to have an Apology for his Conduct; for Mr. Bolton, of whom the Rooms were taken, had before Seward's ſhutting them up, inform'd him, that they were hired by ſome of the chief Perſons in Town, for a Term then unexpired; which Declaration of Mr. Bolton's was confirmed by Seward himſelf, who happening to come into your Shop at the very Time when you had given him for the Author of the Paragraph, to ſome who were come to make Enquiry about it, he thought proper to give a Detail of the Part he had acted in this Affair; and therein he own'd, that before his ſhutting up the Rooms, Mr. Bolton had told him they belonged to the Members of the Concert, tho' he had ſo lately pretended and affirmed the Contrary, when he ask'd Pardon as before related.

It is ſaid the Paragraph is true, becauſe the Company did not meet to Dance on the Tueſday before the Date of your laſt Gazette: But alas! will this juſtify the Iniquity of ſuch an Impoſition on the Publick? The Fact was; The ſame Night the Rooms were ſhut up by Seward, the Gentlemen of the Concert judging ſuch a romantick Piece of Conduct cou'd only proceed from a wrong TURN of Head, thought it below them to take any Notice of it, and therefore ordering their Door to be opened again, met the Night after according to Cuſtom; and the Tueſday following, the Company met to Dance as they uſed to do; but the Aſſembly being only for the Winter Seaſon, is now diſcontinued of Courſe, and the Concert being for the whole Year, ſtill goes on as uſual.

After this Account of Seward's Behaviour, no one can wonder at his low Craft, in getting this Paragraph foiſted into the News Papers juſt before his Departure for England, in order to carry it along with him, and ſpread his Maſter's Fame, as tho' he had met with great Succeſs among the better Sort of People in Pennſylvania, when at the ſame Time, to his great Mortification, he can't but be ſenſible that he has been neglected by them; and were they to deliver their Sentiments of him with the ſame Freedom he takes with others, he wou'd preſently diſcover, they had both him and his miſchievous Tenets in the utmoſt Contempt.

Nor is this the only Inſtance of Miſrepreſentation in Favour of Mr. Whitefield's Succeſs; for in all thoſe Articles of News, which give an Account of the vaſt Crouds who compoſe his Audience, their Numbers are always exaggerated, being often doubled and ſometimes trebled: And conſidering that theſe Accounts are ſaid to be put into the Papers by themſelves, are they not a further Specimen of their little Regard to Truth? Nay, are they not a Demonſtration that theſe Men have other Deſigns in View than are agreeable to their Pretences? And what ſuch a Cauſe muſt be that requires ſuch Means to propagate it, is left to the Judgment of all unprejudiced Men.

WILLIAMSBURG, April 11.

Laſt Saturday or Sunday, Capt. Loney arriv'd in Rappahannock River, in about 6 Weeks, from London, having obtain'd a Protection for his Men. We hear, that when he came from England, an Embargo was laid on the Ships in the Ports; that there was a very hot Preſs for Sailors; and that it was uncertain when the Virginia Fleet wou'd ſail.

Yeſterday His Majeſty's Ships the Hector, Sir Yelverton Peyton, and the Wolf, Capt. Dandridge, (our Station Ships,) ſail'd on a Cruiſe towards Georgia.

His Excellency Gabriel Johnſtone, Eſq; Governor of North-Carolina, is expected here this Evening, or To-morrow; as is alſo Col. Spotſwood; who, we are inform'd, are to confer with the Governor of this Colony, on Publick Affairs of importance.

Virginia,

Virginia ss.

By the Honourable WILLIAM GOOCH, Esq; His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of this Dominion.

A PROCLAMATION,

To Encourage Persons, inhabiting within the same, to Enlist themselves in His Majesty's Service.

WHEREAS His most Sacred Majesty, from a just Resentment of the many unjust Seisures and Depredations that have been made on the Ships, Goods, and Effects, and the Cruelties and Barbarities that have been exercised on the Persons of His Subjects, under Commissions from the King of Spain, or his Governors, by His Most Gracious Declaration, bearing Date at Kensington, the Nineteenth Day of October, in the Thirteenth Year of His Reign, has been pleased to Declare War against the said King of Spain: And for the more effectual Carrying on the same, has determin'd to raise Forces in His said Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America. AND whereas, His Majesty is graciously pleased to give all proper Encouragement to the Levies so to be raised, I have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Council of State, by this Proclamation, in His Majesty's Name, to Publish and Declare to all his loving Subjects, who, either excited by a laudable Zeal for the Honour of their Sovereign, or prompted by a due Regard to the Security of the Trade of the American Seas, or moved by the Cruelties and Barbarities that have been exercised towards their Fellow Subjects, shall be willing to enter into His Majesty's Service, That it is His Majesty's Pleasure to provide them with Arms and Accoutrements, and proper Cloathing, at his own Expence. And if they shall be transported from hence to any other Place where their Service may be required, His Majesty is pleased to give them this Assurance, that they shall receive their due Share of any Booty that may be taken from the Enemy; and when such Service is over, be sent back hither, unless they desire to settle elsewhere. And all Persons so disposed to serve his Majesty, are forthwith to repair to Williamsburg; and upon their Application to Me, and being listed, they shall immediately enter into His Majesty's Pay. And in Case of such Transportation, as aforesaid, although His Majesty will be at the Expence of finding them Provisions, and providing all Necessaries for that Purpose, every Person so listed, shall receive Two Guineas, as His Majesty's Bounty, when he Embarks.

GIVEN at the Council Chamber, in Williamsburg, the Third Day of April, in the Thirteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign. WILLIAM GOOCH.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

PHILADELPHIA.

Last Night the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD arrived here, having preach'd at every Place mentioned in our last, and at New York, where he got upwards of 300 l. by private Donations and publick Collections, for the Orphan-House in Georgia. He preaches here every Day this Week, and takes his leave on Sunday Evening. On Monday he preaches at Darby and Chester, where a Collection is to be made for the Orphan-House. On Tuesday at Wilmington by Ten a Clock precisely in the Morning; and at Whiteclay Creek at four in the Afternoon, where he intends to collect again. On Wednesday by Noon at Nottingham; and from thence he intends to return with all Speed to New-Castle, and to go on board in order to sail for Georgia.---He cannot go so far as Dover and Lewis Town, as proposed in our last, being obliged to hasten as fast as possible to Georgia, that he may have Time to go to New-England, and come from thence hither at the latter End of the Year.

Those who are disposed to send Provisions or Money for the Orphan-House, may send it to the House of Mr. Stephen Benezet Merchant, in Second Street.

In most Places where he has been, the Congregations were as numerous again as when he was here last.
